

Greensburg Sends Big Delegation To City With School Team

USE STADIUM FOR HUSKING, ROGERS ADVISES FARMERS

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Nov. 16.—The senate is meeting at night. There was a lot of things they couldn't investigate in the day time.

We are going to get lower taxes, just think, too, lower taxes and not on a presidential election year.

Twenty thousand people in Missouri gathered to see twelve farmers in the world's championship corn husking. No wonder the farmer has nothing.

If he had been smart enough to put these on under the guise of college athletics, hired a coach and a stadium, why then the farmer would be setting as pretty as Notre Dame.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Welcome, Greensburg high school team and visitors from Greensburg, Pa. New is glad, in behalf of the citizens of this city, to extend a hearty greeting. And may the best team win.

Double parking on the downtown streets seems to be still very much in vogue, despite the frequent campaigns inaugurated to break up the practice.

A large truck carrying three immense "Christmas" trees sailed through Washington street yesterday. But they were not early decorations for Christmas, they were trees being transported for transplanting.

Pa New is of the opinion that the traffic light that is now in storage should be put in use at the corner of Mercer street and Moody avenue. The needs but to peruse the accident report record to see whether it is needed at this corner or not.

Uninspected autos are not allowed on the highways today. The time limit expired yesterday. Drivers whose cars do not bear "inspected" tags will be arrested.

Why not extend the Wilmington avenue bus line to Walmo?

Time of year is rapidly approaching when new calendars will be making their appearance. The number of calendars distributed is much smaller than some years since, and it is rather difficult to find many "free" calendars anymore.

Lights ordered on the streets surrounding the new Memorial hospital have not as yet been erected.

Perhaps you do not know it, but this is the last day to mail Christmas presents to Australia, and have them arrive before December 25. Monday is the last day to send them to Newfoundland.

The South Sider who reported to police that he was robbed of $33 on the streets on Thursday night, at least has a claim to the local hall of fame. The bandits were females, according to his report.

Girls of the senior high were on the streets this morning earlier than most of them have been for some time. Reason: Poppy day. These poppy campaigns are well handled for Pa. New knows of no single corner that wasn't "under cover" at an early hour today.

Bessemer high school's football team is today the championship team in class B of Lawrence county. So far the Bessemerites have tasted defeat but once and that time from an Ohio team. The crew from the southwestern end of the county defeated Union yesterday to win the county crown.

Sheriff Kills Kansas Woman

Alleged Woman Threatened To Shoot Officer Last Night

SHOOTING FOLLOWS STOPPING OF AUTO

(International News Service)
HERINGTON, Kas., Nov. 16.—Mrs. Louise Horton, said to be of Kansas City, was shot and killed here last night when she was alleged to have threatened to kill the sheriff of Dickinson county, who was questioning her and a man concerning liquor, which the sheriff believed to be in their motor car.

Mat Howard, also said to be of Kansas City, was in the car with Mrs. Louise Horton when accosted by Sheriff Sidney Dederick and Chief of Police Arthur Calkins.

The two officers had heard that a couple of bootleggers were going to be driving through Herington. The officers went to the edge of town and while waiting stopped the motor car driven by Mrs. Horton and Howard to question the two occupants.

Starts to Drive Off.
The woman in the car, Mrs. Horton, said something to Howard who started to drive off. Sheriff Dederick jumped on the running board of the car while Howard drove at a terrific rate of speed to the center of the town. All this time Mrs. Horton is said to have had a gun pressed against Sheriff Dederick.

"I'm going to kill you," the woman is alleged to have said after ordering him to jump from the motor car. At this the sheriff is reported to have pulled his own gun which he is alleged not to have flourished until after the threat and shot Mrs. Horton, killing her.

Big Investigation Due In Erie, Belief

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 16.—Rumors current in Erie several weeks ago that the Federal government was preparing a far-reaching probe into matters affecting Western Pennsylvania were revived here today when it became known that A. Stanley Thompson, special assistant to the United States Attorney General has been spending considerable time here interviewing various persons and visiting the federal grand jury in session here.

According to the preparations made at the federal building here to take care of Thompson and his witnesses, an extended probe of some kind is probable. Thompson refused to divulge the nature of the probe.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 16.—With a price of $70,000 on their heads, the seven armed bandits who terrorized and robbed eighteen socially prominent guests in the mansion of John L. ## Wilson Avenue Man Kills Self

Worry Over Job And Financial Matters Thought To Be Cause

WIFE NEARBY AS HE SHOOTS SELF

Fearing that he was going to lose his job and worried by a debt overhanging his home, Frank Barrett, aged 47, of Wilson avenue, committed suicide about 10 o'clock this morning by shooting himself through the heart with a 38 calibre revolver.

The act was committed in the cellar of his home in the presence of his wife, although she did not actually see the shot fired. A call was sent to police headquarters and Detective John Young and Officers Charles Longstreth and Ray Richards responded. When they arrived and found Barrett dead, they called Coroner J. P. Caldwell.

According to the story told the officers Mr. Barrett has been despondent over the possibility of losing his job. He had told several people that if he lost his job he was afraid that he would be unable to keep up the payments on his property. Although he appeared to be greatly worried, it was not believed that he would attempt anything rash.

MANY AMENDMENTS BEING WRITTEN IN

Hawley-Smoot Bill Completed As To Chief Agricultural Sections By Senate

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The highest tariff barriers ever erected by congress for the benefit of American farmers were written into the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill today with completion of the chief agricultural sections of the senate.

The senate not only retained the major increases proposed for agriculture by the house but adopted a score of amendments raising other house rates. In but few instances were spokesmen for the great consuming centers successful in blocking boosts.

Sweeping Victory.
With the adoption of minor amendments today, the senate was still confronted with the related agricultural schedules of tobacco and sugar. Neither was embraced in the original "farm bloc" program to boost the agricultural rates to a parity with industry in conformity with the special session call of President Hoover.

No Time Extension On Auto Inspection Granted By State

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—Officials of the state highway patrol today reiterated their former stand that there will be no extension of the compulsory automobile inspection period which expires at 12:01 o'clock this morning.

All patrol headquarters have been instructed to arrest on sight operators of all cars today or at any time until December 15 which do not bear the official "inspected and approved" stickers the fine prescribed by the motor vehicle code for operation of an automobile without the necessary compulsory inspection is $10.00.

Officials of the patrol admit that some misunderstanding in enforcement of the sticker provision is certain to result. New cars purchased after today need not bear the official sticker. The date on the car registration card will be sufficient proof of the right to operate. Used cars purchased during the next 30 day period, however, must bear the yellow sticker. Officials say that garages should not sell cars which have not been inspected and approved.

Nearly $350,000 Will Be Distributed Here In Christmas Funds

Unless you have seven dollars in a Christmas Savings account this year you have not got your average. According to figures released today the approximately total of such funds in the seven banks carrying them, amounts to $347,000.00 or about seven dollars each for every man, woman and child in the city, figuring the population at 50,000.

The amount this year is surprisingly large and indicates very definitely that New Castle citizens have been saving their money. This golden stream will be loosed in December, so that the depositors will get their money before December 10th.

Accused Woman Baffles Officials

Fail In Effort To Make Ex-Cabaret Singer Confess Brutal Killing Of Two Kiddies

OFFICIALS, NOT WOMAN, FAGGED

By MILDRED GILMAN
International News Service Special Correspondent.
CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 16.—The world has become a dizzy question mark to grim, white-faced Gladys Mae Parks.

The final siege is on—the constant grinding battery of questions which will not end, according to Prosecutor Clifford A. Baldwin, until:

"The woman gives us a true confession of her guilt and admits that she cold-bloodedly slew her wards, Dorothy Rogers and her brother, Timothy."

It doesn't seem possible, after 140 hours of almost constant grilling that there can be more strength left in the woman; that the same questions can be asked over and over again, but—

Police Stumped
This time there will be no recuperation, no time out for meals—bread and coffee brought occasionally—to the woman in the isolated witness chamber; no sleep now. Gladys Parks won't wear out her inquisitors this time, say the baffled prosecutors. They are tackling the job in shifts of two hours, seven dogged men battling one small woman of stone.

But at the end of the two hours, each one emerges from his grim tete-a-tete with the small blonde ex-cabaret singer, shaking his head.

"She's some woman," said Chief Lawrence T. Doran of the Camden county detectives, wiping his brow. "No signs of weakening."

No moans and tears this time, no fainting. The icy child-beater is herself again.

There will be no more spectacular visits to morgues and burial places, no more shudders for Gladys, only questions, questions, questions, a prolonged attempt to break the woman down by monotony and fatigue.

O'DONNELL WILL MAKE ADDRESS

An open meeting to be held Monday evening at eight o'clock in the hall of the Eagles Home, 43 South Jefferson street, New Castle, will inaugurate a drive for new members. The meeting is open to members, their wives and their friends and all who may be interested in the principles, the work and the accomplishments of an organization that has been active in the interests, not only of its members, but all the people of this country.

The story of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, acknowledged today as being one of the greatest organizations of its kind in the world, will be told at this open meeting by Thomas O'Donnell of Kansas City, Mo., who is known as and acknowledged to be one of the most eloquent speakers in the ranks of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Mr. O'Donnell has been on the platform for many years and is one of the most efficient and vivid word-painters in the country today. He is a member of the staff of the organization department of the Fraternity.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles at the present time has a membership of 60,000 and during the past year approximately 80,000 new members were admitted.

The various aeries in the United States, and Canada, numbering approximately 1,200, have assets approaching $45,000,000. The organization has been a constant advocate of Old Age Pensions and it is due to the efforts of this organization, assisted by other agencies, that such a system has been adopted in ten states and four Canadian provinces.

Everything that the order is or may be in the life of a community or a family, as well as the country as a whole, will be made plain by Mr. O'Donnell in his address Monday evening at the Eagles Home.

New Castle is in line for next year, it has been stated. It is likely that the present situation will result in stimulated government building activity.

later, Mrs. Barrett, whose back was toward her husband, was startled by a shot. Turning she saw her husband going over backwards as the chair tilted over. He fell on his back on the concrete, and the revolver dropped beside him. ## SECRETARY CALLS BUSINESS LEADERS INTO CONFERENCE longed collapse of securities' prices. Mr. Hoover on Wednesday demonstrated his faith in the basic soundness of the country's business structure by committing his administration to immediate reduction of personal and corporate taxes to the extent of $160,000,000.

Calls General Conference

Today he followed up this reassuring step by preparing for a general conference in Washington next week with some of the nation's leading industrialists, economists, agriculturists, and business experts, as which definite corrective steps will be mapped out to carry the country over this difficult period.

Together the President and his conferees will canvas the situation, make certain specific recommendations, and again reassure hesitant credit that the business structure is still sound, weather-proof, and needed only the sunshine of renewed confidence to withstand existing conditions.

It is Mr. Hoover's theory that the remedy for stale business is redoubled efforts to obtain more business, together with the psychology of confidence. He aims to stimulate the one, and restore the other.

Develop Over Optimism

"In market booms," he said, in announcing his forthcoming conference, "we develop over optimism with a corresponding reverse into over pessimism. They are equally unjustified."

"Any lack of confidence in the economic future or the basic strength of business in the United States is foolish. Our national capacity for hard work and intelligent cooperation is ample guaranty for the future."

Mr. Hoover wants to stimulate building activities throughout the country, both public and private, as one great step toward increased business. It is a theory which he has long held that a nation that is constantly erecting new buildings is a busy and prosperous nation, for the ramifications of the building industry extend into every line of industrial activity and benefits steel, cement, lumber, and innumerable manufacturing industries, as well as labor.

Capital Diverted

"One of the results of the speculative period through which we have passed," he said, "has been the diversion of capital into the security market, with consequent lagging of the construction work of the country. The postponement of construction during the past months, including not only buildings, railways, merchant marine and public utilities, but also Federal, State and municipal public works, provides a substantial reserve for prompt expanded action. The situation is further assured by the exceptionally strong cash position of the large manufacturing industries of the country."

In other words, according to Mr. Hoover, the country has for months been succumbing to the lure of easy money in Wall street, and has sent its cash into that busy mart instead of using it in the localities in which it was made to stimulate local business activities.

He wants to coordinate this intended stimulation of construction activity with renewed efforts at foreign trade expansion, and encouragement of general business expansion.

Methods by which this program can be carried out will be discussed by the President with the industrial leaders and economists whom he is summoning to the capital next week. The complete list of the men being invited will not be revealed until Sunday, but among them will be Adolph Lewisohn, New York financier; Julius Barnes, head of various subsidiaries of the Electric Bond and Share Corporation; Matthew Woll, vice president of the American Federation of Labor; Alexander Legge, chairman of the Federal Farm Board and ex-president of the International Harvester Company; Gov. Roy A. Young of the Federal Reserve System and various members of the cabinet.

The conference next week was referred to by the president as "a preliminary conference"—indicating that in the near future he plans another and more extensive parley with the nations business and industrial leaders, together with leading agriculturists.

It is familiar ground to Mr. Hoover. During his eight years as Secretary of Commerce he probably held more conferences with business men throughout the country than all of the rest of the cabinet put together.

NEAR TO DEATH

he survives it will be little short of miraculous.

"Slightly better" was the word that came from the bedside shortly after 7:30 a. m. It served but faintly to revive hopes.

The "slight improvement" was ascribed by the doctors to the fact that the patient was able to get some sleep between two and six a. m., and that the drainage process was still functioning.

Several of the greatest surgeons in the country, hurriedly summoned, were at his bedside, but could do little more than administer opiates to relieve his pain. His temperature was raging and his pulse and respiration were high.

Hoover Gravely Concerned

President Hoover, who has been gravely concerned over his old friend's condition from the moment he was hurriedly taken to Walter Reed hospital Tuesday night, rushed to Good's bedside late last night for a few reassuring words soon after the first of the alarming bulletins on his condition was issued.

Dr. John M. Finney, the famous surgeon and military specialist, friend of John Hopkins, had made a flying motor trip from Baltimore for mid-night consultation with the attending physicians, who include Col. William L. Keller, commandant of the hospital, who performed the appendectomy; Secretary of Interior Wilbur, who is a noted diagnostician; Commander Joel T. Boone, the White House physician, and members of the staff.

bers the shelling handed his team on that never to be forgotten snow swept field of mud last fall in Greensburg, and today he is out to even up. Greensburg's team is primed for the game, with the exception of one lineman who may not start. With this exception the team looks fit, and Loucks does not offer any alibis as to condition, lack of training, and certainly no alibis as to lack of ambition.

Several hundred Greensburg rooters preceded the team to town by automobile. All night long cars were checking in and The Castleton had a host of athletic guests Friday evening.

Just which is the best team is highly conjectural. New Castle wants to redeem itself for the indifferent showing at Youngstown last Saturday. Greensburg wants to avenge last year's defeat. Both teams are fast and both teams are coached by smart football mentors. It should be a game worth while watching.

TARIFF BARRIERS FOR AGRICULTURE ARE BOOSTED HIGHER

claimed the result a sweeping victory for agriculture, there was some dissatisfaction even in the bloc's ranks over the boosts.

Sen. Norbeck (R) of South Dakota, declared that some agricultural rates had been lifted out of reason and Sen. Wheeler, (D) of Montana asserted "we have gone to the extreme in fixing rates."

At the same time Sen. Glass (D) of Virginia, criticized the senate by declaring "the great American consuming public hasn't got a chance on earth here."

Among the agricultural rates incorporated in the bill are: wheat 42 cents, same as present law; oats increased at 16 cents; corn 15 to 25 cents; potatoes 40 to 75 cents a hundredweight; fresh tomatoes, 1 to 3 cents a pound; canned tomatoes 40 to 50 cents a valorem; citrus products were raised all along the line, as were duties on fish.

Support 1922 Rates.

Having obtained their demands on agricultural rates, the agricultural Republicans generally were adopting the program laid down by Sen. Simmons (D) of North Carolina, of retaining the rates as the basis of the new tariff bill.

As a result of the spread of this attitude, the new group of "young guard" Republicans headed by Sen. Vandenberg (R) of Michigan was negotiating with insurgent leaders in the rather slim hope of passing the bill in the special session.

They agreed to yield to the coalition demands if the coalition leaders agree to protect the present sugar tariff of the nation against low tariff assault. Vandenberg expressed optimism over the progress made, but said there was no thought of entering into a formal agreement.

Seeking Escape.

Meaning insurgent leaders were still trying to find an escape from the threatened bitter fight over the sugar tariff. Although Sen. Howell (R) of Nebraska was engaged in promoting the plan of Sen. Borah (R) of Idaho to pay beet sugar producers a bounty and the present sugar tariff unchanged, some insurgents rebelled against it.

Spokesmen for the beet sugar interests also spurned the plan, and declared they would fight for a flat increase in the sugar tariff.

Advocates of the "young guard" group meanwhile were sensitive of newspaper criticism, which branded them merely as rebels against the "old guard." The "young guard" simply banded together to carry out what they thought to be resident Hoover's wishes, because they believed the tariff bill should be passed at the special session as a guarantee of business stability, they said.

Talk of adjourning the congress next week was silenced for the time being, by the militant attitude of the "young guard." There were indications though that the plea for early adjournment would be renewed next week, following final action on the agricultural schedule. The "young guard" meanwhile had a battle-cry of "stand by the president and pass the bill."

One of the members said: "If we have formed a bloc, it is the first time President Hoover has had one in congress."

Something Was Done.
Prices Up, Loans Down.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1929, King Features

Brokers' loans, borrowed for stock investment and speculation, dropped seven hundred million dollars in a week, a very "bull" point.

General Motors declared an extra dividend of 30 cents that will give stockholders in a few days $12,900,000 more than they would have had ordinarily. That was cheerful news.

The powers of government and finance did something about the shrinkage in stock values and public confidence yesterday. A lower income tax was announced. And later came a lowering of the rediscount rate to four and one-half per cent. All that will help.

The important thing is for the public to come out of its hysteria and realize that the foolishness of a few gamblers does not justify throwing away securities for less than their value.

Don't gamble, and don't be panic-stricken.

All kinds of plus signs appeared in the stock list. Up 5, up 10 1-4, up 13 7-8, up 17. It was a regular up, up day, a sort of "excelsior" poem in Wall street.

Those that had mourned rejoiced. And some of the bears that had rejoiced, mourned.

By way of comfort, a Wall street wren said to you: "The panic of 1837 came to an end."

The panic of 1857 came to an end.
The panic of 1873 came to an end.
The panic of 1893 came to an end.
The panic of 1907 came to an end.
And the panic of 1929 will come to an end.

Certainly it may have ended now. It wasn't a panic based on bad economic conditions that usually cause panics. It was a toppling over of pyramided gambling that had to topple.

Panics come to an end, but unfortunately human foolishness does not come to an end.

The governments of Turkey and Persia protest against misrepresentations by American rug and carpet manufacturers marketing products under Oriental names.

No American merchant of consequence misrepresents goods.

Americans are manufacturing rugs and carpets, superb in color and weaving quality. They will take the place of Oriental rugs in time.

Ask James Simpson of Chicago for details.

Once the Romans drank only Greek wines, thinking their own inferior.

Later French aristocrats accepted only Italian wines, although their own were admirable.

This country's wealthy would drink only French claret and champagne, although we made good wines here until prohibition came along and sent the country back to the whisky of Jefferson's day, only worse.

Before long Americans will realize that their own rugs and carpets are as good as any in the world.

Charles E. Hughes made a good speech on Wednesday, demanding more reversion of women's education.

Seven leading women's colleges have not one-tenth the endowment of the seven leading men's colleges.

That is extremely foolish, for the mothers of the human race are at least ten times as important as the fathers.

What women learn they remember and tell to their children. What men learn they forget in business and don't tell anybody.

Venezelos, prime minister and ablest man in Greece, knows what airplanes will mean when war comes.

He will establish a separate air ministry and run it himself.

President Hoover, able engineer, ought to have a separate air ministry as one of three branches of a national defense system, and be his own air minister. Nobody could do the work better. A sub-secretary could look after details.

Just now, as you know, the Red Cross is making a drive for more members, and more money. The President adjourned all to join.

Some busy gentlemen, in Wall street felt uneasy Thursday when a huge Red Cross flag was seen floating over the stock exchange. It recalled, painfully, battle, war, sudden death.

However, prices went up, so the flag was a good omen.

The Senate, refusing to adjourn on November 23, by a vote of 51 to 34, will go on working at the tariff.

European countries, afraid of higher duties, had rejoiced to hear of the adjournment, and a more or less feeble move to boycott Uncle Sam was abandoned. It may be taken up again.

HAVE THE FACTS

Perhaps our commonest failure is the failure to have the facts. Men and women rush into newspaper offices to make complaints about something in the newspaper which doesn't please them. Frequently their statements, influenced by irritation, cover too much territory. The complainant makes a declaration he can't prove. Patient analysis of the newspaper article shows he is wrong and the paper right. He is humiliated but more dissatisfied than ever. This sort of thing is not confined to newspaper offices. Most of us are prone to go wild in our charges, especially if we are angry. We face defeat and humiliation, if we don't have the facts. Get the evidence before you state your case.

If you act that way, you can't consistently lick the kid if he chooses not to obey the law that forbids the stealing of jam.

Noise is waste.

The ordinance in New York against unnecessary noises is being enforced against auto horn blowers, noisy auto brakes, open mufflers on autos and also against screeching fire engine sirens. If all the birds in this burg could be fined for doing those things we would not need any other kind of taxes for anything. Some loud just make noises to pass the time away.

REVELATION
Death, you shall take my hand some day.
Hold it a moment gently, then Lead me into the quietude Of ships that loiter at the quay With cargoes of the dreams of men, Sweet-scented as old sandalwood.

Then you and I shall sail away To keep our lone, predestined tryst, And you who waited long for me Shall smile at my surprise and say That, had I known, I had not missed Life's little things so bitterly.

One of the finest little five-year-old chaps we know was at our house for lunch yesterday and we asked him if he wanted some mixed pickles we were passing. He said "Give me some of the little onions." We told him it was not nice to take the best things on a dish. He replied, "That is the only way to get them if you want them." How true!

Every man wants all he can get.

Nobody can look uncomfortable or feel like a bigger fool than the man who is wearing a rented dress suit at some swell function. This is doubly so when the man he rented it from is present. We never rented one because they do not have the big size we take for rent.

The law forbids one to marry a fool, but some people always seem to get around the law.

Dear Fred: Some general once said: "War is Hell!" My wife has been away a couple of weeks and I have two kiddies to look after, make beds, cook, dress the children, clean house, look after the canaries, and feed the gold fish. Say, that general didn't know what he was talking about.

We saw a caterpillar going on the dead road along the walk just like he did not look for any winter this year or any other year. But he might have been headed for home at that which would make a difference.

Some people are always looking for "backers."

Nobody can tell a stockholder that a stock dividend doesn't mean anything.

Isn't it hard," said the landlady, "to think this poor lamb was cut down in its youth to satisfy our appetites?"

"Yes," replied the unhappy boarder at the end of the table; "it is tough."

Poor G. O. P. Organization Blamed For Walker Victory

While Some Feel New York Got What It Wanted Many Believe Republicans Failed Lamentably In Providing Worthy Issues

The large plurality achieved by Mayor Walker of New York is explained in various ways though majority opinion places the blame squarely upon the Republican organization for its failure to provide an issue.

"This was not a campaign of parties but of particulars and personalities," declares the NEW YORK SUN (Ind.), offering the verdict: "The voters of the city preferred the devil they knew to the devil they didn't. With all his faults, they took Walker, and they were wise. He could be a great mayor if he would." The Sun asks further: "Don't the Republicans of the city of New York ever weary of the wallowing? Must they always have a candidate who has no issue or, as in the unpleasant incident just passed, a candidate who has nothing honest to offer in issue or attractive in presentation?"

"The election at once led to demands for a better Republican leadership," records the NEW YORK TIMES (Ind.), and that paper concludes: "Who is going to undertake this long and arduous labor? The very fact that there seems to be nobody in sight to set about it, and that the organization leaders so much berated seem to be safely entrenched in power, is doubtless what makes the situation look hopeless to so many Republicans. They grumble and complain bitterly, but only a few of them are willing to do the necessary fighting."

"New York emphatically does not want La Guardia and Koenig's broken-down Republican organization," in the opinion of the NEW YORK EVENING POST (Ind.), which adds that "a minority wants neither Walker, La Guardia nor Thomas, but does want a chance to protest against both Democratic and Republican machines." The Post offers the explanation: "An autopsy should go into the bipartisan understandings that really sucked the life out of Republicanism in the city. It should go into the present decadence and impotence of its leadership. Mr. La Guardia cannot aspire to that leadership. Despite the fortitude and ability of his fight, he has not been rejected not only by the city but by his party."

"The New Republicans," as appraised by the BUFFALO EVENING NEWS (Rep.), "made the mistake, as they commonly do in the big city, of trying to win more by imitation than by opposition. That usually is fatal to success, as it logically would be. Evidently a great many people voted for Norman Thomas, not because they had been converted to socialism, but because his candidacy represented the most pronounced dissent from present methods of government. The Republican candidate for district attorney deserved to fare better, but Tammany also had nominated a man who gave citizens little cause for opposing him. The most heartening evidence of reform uprising was the election of George U. Harvey as borough president of Queens."

From the middle west comes an opinion which assays the election much as New York saw it. The DES MOINES TRIBUNE-CAPITAL (Ind. Rep.) says: "Neither Walker nor La Guardia debated a single issue of importance. Walker assailed his opponents as mudslingers, and that was about the extent of his debating. La Guardia denounced Walker as a fancy dresser who failed to solve the Rothstein murder case. Thomas brought out budgets, school reports, and a number of other matters of real importance. The two old-party candidates tried to rouse the mob. The Socialist candidate appealed to the intelligence of the voters. Thomas had no very radical program, the more extreme parties had their nominees and denounced him as a conservative, and he got the votes of many who would not encourage radicalism at all."

"If Jimmy Walker is the sort of mayor New York wants, then, popular government being what it is, he is the sort of mayor New York City is entitled to have," says the SPRINGFIELD MASS. UNION (Rep.). "With this handsome vindication," continues the Union, "there seems to be no reason why he should not continue his wise-cracking for the next four years, in the serene confidence that he is what two-thirds of the enrolled electorate of the city desire and expect of a mayor. As for the government of the city, early in the campaign Walker pledged himself to take the advice and leadership from John F. Curry, grand sashem of Tammany and symbol of the Tiger's dropping of the temporarily affected high hat, and Sashem Curry undoubtedly will see to it that New York City is well governed according to the prized traditions of Tammany."

"Party politics really had little to do with Walker's victory," asserts the WHEELING INTELLIGENCER (Rep.). "He owes his all to old reliable Tammany, which has exacted enough graft in the present administration to elect a rag doll to the mayoralty." Walker was elected, according to the GREAT FALLS TRIBUNE (Dem.), "not because he deserved re-election, but because La Guardia could not command the united support of his own party, and was incapable of conducting the sort of campaign that would attract independent voters." The NORFOLK LEDGER-DISPATCH (Ind. Dem.) holds that "if Mayor James J. Walker had been opposed by stronger candidates, his sweeping plurality would be much more significant than it is. The weakness of La Guardia is attested also by the SAVANNAH MORNING NEWS (Dem.). The MILLWAUKEE JOURNAL (Ind.) gives the verdict: "The loud speaker failed to displace the comedian."

The ATLANTA JOURNAL (Dem.) sees more in the result than meets most eyes. "Mayor Walker's majority," it declares, "was so marked a gain over his party's showing in the Metropolitan district last November that it stands out as an extraordinary omen. Moreover, the Democratic ticket won in 11 other cities in New York state, most of which are known as Republican strongholds—Ithaca, for instance, which has been such for 15 successive years—and also in Springfield, Mass., Bridgeport, Conn., and Indianapolis, Ind." The voting, whether in states or in municipalities, had a broad import, which the far-seeing student of national politics will not overlook. The conclusion seems well warranted that the country is soberly reassessing party records and party values; and the more these are weighed, the more it will appear that Democracy is found not wanting."

This teeming welter of human souls! Where in tidal waves the traffic rolls This place dynamic

"Yes, sir, out of the surging mass Of upper and lower and middle class This squirming, wriggling, elbowing throng

Of human beings weak and strong Clever and witty, Dumb and pretty,

I came, as I tell you, face to face With a fellow whose name I cannot place.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

ALWAYS FAITHFUL

There is a beautiful fellow concerning Man and his faithful friend, the Dog.

It seems that Man after he found how other men fought with him, lied to him and deceived him; how thin was the veneer of friendship, and how often he who called himself his "friend" deserted him, prayed in anguish to his Maker asking for someone who would always be true and loyal.

And he who sat on High heard the complaint of Man and grieved for him so that out of his compassion He said: "Let a companion for Man be formed."

Then from the ends of the Heavens, Fidelity, Trustfulness, Courage, Sympathy, Watchfulness and Endurance were gathered and from these was Man's companion formed.

And this companion journeyed with Man, during his trials with the same fortitude and cheerfulness with which he shared his joys, never complaining, resting at his side, guarding his pillow, ever faithful, ever loyal, refusing to forsake Man even when Man proved ungrateful and false to the trust his companion reposed in him.

And Man called this companion, "DOG."

SPENDING THE WRONG WAY

There are more than a hundred organizations throughout the United States which are devoted to character education. They include the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., National Child Welfare League, Boy Scouts and many others. It is said we spend a half billion dollars a year on character education. That seems like much money. But we are spending more than ten billion dollars every year on crime. Dr. Beatley, Harvard university, speaking to teachers, says: "We spend only a fraction on character education of what we spend on the lack of it. New York state spends a sixth of its revenue on social failures."

HOPE TO BREAK ENDURANCE MARK

(International News Service)
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 16.—Miss Bobby Trout, California, and Miss Elinor Smith, New York, who are attempting to break the endurance mark of 200 hours, today faced a man-sized job of driving an airplane through the skies for three weeks.

They expected to take off at noon today in their Sunbeam bi-plane.

Miss Trout, Los Angeles, and Miss Smith, Freeport, Long Island school girl hoped to set a historic mark of at least 500 hours.

They then succeeded, Miss Trout and Miss Smith will have remained aloft more than the 420 hours 21 minutes set in the St. Louis Robin by Dale Jackson and Forrest O'Brien and will have broken the records of all aviators of both sexes.

The flight preparations covered months. They terminated in practice contacts between the refueling plane, driven by Paul Whittier, Los Angeles millionaire sponsor of the test, with Miss Smith at the wheel-control.

Pete Reinhardt, who briefly held the refuel record of 246 hours with Loren Mendel in the Angeleno plane, will be in charge of the nurse plane.

Expect President To Name Rest Of Naval Delegates

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—President Hoover is expected to announce next week the remaining members of the American delegation to the London naval conference.

Thus far only four principal delegates have been chosen—Secretary of State Stimson, Senators Reed (D) of Pennsylvania and Robinson (D) of Arkansas and Ambassador Dawes. Two others, probably from civil life, will be designated, it is understood, although the White House is still standing on its original announcement that the delegation will comprise "five or six."

The American delegates probably will sail from New York on the White Star liner Olympic, which will land them in England several days before the opening of the conference on January 21. They will be preceded by some two score technicians, clerks and stenographers.

Seattle Women Placed In Jail At Pittsburgh

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 16.—Following the refusal of Judge Frank E. Patterson to grant her a new trial, Miss Marie Edwards, 26, of Seattle, Wash., today began serving her sentence of from two to four years in the Allegheny county workhouse.

A companion, Edith Cook, 25, also of Seattle was sentenced to one to two years in the same institution.

Following her arrest here for shoplifting in three Pittsburgh department stores, detectives produced records showing that Miss Edwards had been arrested in many cities and that the two women are alleged members of a nation-wide shoplifting gang. They were arrested here three days after coming from Chicago.

Eight More Will Face Arrest Over Looting Of Bank

Six Already Arrested In Connection With Banking Trouble At Flint, Mich.

(International News Service)
FLINT, Mich., Nov. 16.—Prosecutor Charles D. Beagle announced today that eight other persons in addition to the six already arrested are to be charged with complicity in the looting of the Union Industrial bank to the extent of $3,582,000.

"Other warrants will be issued," said Beagle, summarizing his next steps in prosecution of the bankers involved in the biggest bank theft on record. "State Bank Examiner Leon D. Rose is working on the books and other warrants will be issued as soon as further information is available. That might be today, but more likely it will not be ready until Monday," Beagle added.

Of the six now out on bond on embezzlement charges, only one has indicated his determination to fight the case.

"I am innocent and I'll fight through to the end," John S. DeCamp former senior vice president of the bank, declared.

All six of the arrested stood mute at their arraignment yesterday and pleas of not guilty were entered for them. Bail for DeCamp was set at $100,000. Bail for the others was set at $10,000 each.

Attempt To Break Colorado Prison Has Been Foiled

Five Convicts Preparing To Make Getaway On Sunday Put In Solitary Confinement

(International News Service)
CANON CITY, Colo., Nov. 16.—Five convicts were placed in solitary confinement when a desperate plot to escape from the Colorado state penitentiary on Sunday night had been uncovered today by a newspaper reporter.

A 10-foot tunnel, which reached the base of the south wall of the prison, where blasting powder, a number of sledges, cold chisels, drills and crowbars were discovered, following information given to the newspaper man by a convict.

Prison authorities said today that only one or two more hours' work barred the way to Freedom. Two stones already had been piled loose from the base of the wall.

The newspaper man who turned his information to Warden Crawford is covering the investigation into the prison riot last October which cost 13 lives.

Sets Clothing Afire To Commit Suicide

Believe That Stock Losses Were Responsible For Scramble Tragedy

(International News Service)
SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 16.—Believed to have become mentally deranged by constant brooding over recent losses in the stock market crash, Carl S. Motiska, 58, nationally known civil engineer, burned himself to death today at his home on North Webster avenue here.

His wife, Lucy Motiska, was burned seriously and may not recover from injuries suffered in frantic but futile efforts to prevent her husband from killing himself.

Motiska died an hour after he was admitted to the Moses Taylor hospital where his wife also was taken. Motiska had been highly nervous because of his disastrous speculations in the market which wiped out thousands of dollars of "paper profits" as well as original investments.

This morning he went down to the basement of his home. His wife became alarmed and followed Motiska a few minutes later.

Police say Motiska was saturating his clothing with gasoline when his wife discovered him. As the woman grappled with her husband and tried to save him, he struck a match and his gasoline soaked clothes burst into flame.

Young Willocks And His Bride Disappear

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Surprised and discomfited by the barrage of publicity that has followed their marriage, William Willock, Jr., heir to $120,000,000 and his pretty young bride Adelaide Ingebreten Willock, have fled to a new honeymoon abode, and were inaccessible today. The bride, up to ten days ago when she married Willock, was a chambermaid at the palatial Willock estate at Syosset, Long Island.

They had been honeymooning in an $8 a week room over a store in Oyster Bay. But, what with the ubiquitous reporters and photographers keeping them from their solitude they sought, and the newspapers carrying stories of their romance in no little detail, they decided to pack up and leave. And they did.

Thousands Seek "Cure" Despite Frigid Weather

Thousands File Into Cemetery To Visit Grave Where "Healing Power" Lies Is Report

(International News Service)
MADLEN, Mass., Nov. 16.—Frigid temperatures today failed like the previous twelve hours of rain to prevent thousands of men, women and children from visiting the grave of Rev. Patrick J. Power in Holy Cross cemetery, where many miracle cures have been reported.

As the two long lanes of devout filed through the cemetery gates, way was made for the helpless brought on stretchers from ambulances and automobiles, for the blind on the arms of friends, for the paralyzed children in the arms of their parents, for the wheel chairs of those who could not walk and for others seriously afflicted.

More than a hundred prayed under the mellow of moon of early morning and after dawn the crowds began to gather. Many of those here in the cold had walked ankle deep in mud and prayed beneath a beating rain.

A hundred thousand persons were expected to make pilgrimages to the grave over the week-end. Malden police and city officials made plans to handle the vast throng. Traffic routes for automobiles were designated, and all policemen were ordered on special duty for Sunday and eight firemen volunteered to give their day off to do police duty. Hore wooden fences were put up around the grave, replacing ropes. Barriers will be put around three monuments near the grave for they have been in danger of being toppled over by the crush.

Claims Senate Contributed To Crash In Market

New York Banker Blames Coalition's Attitude, On Tariff Bill

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Fred I. Kent of New York, official of the Banker Trust company, will be summoned before the senate lobby committee, to explain his statement that the senate coalition contributed to the stock market crash by its attitude on the tariff bill.

The decision to call Kent was made upon request of Senator Hawes (D) of Missouri.

Hawes declared that the Kent statement, made to the press, constituted propaganda to defeat the purpose of the Democratic-Insurgent Republican coalition in writing the tariff bill.

Although Senator Caraway said that he was not sure that the Kent statement "came under the head of 'lobbying,'" he told Hawes that he would give the New York banker a chance to air his views.

Seeking Witnesses For McManus Trial

Prosecution Seeks To Obtain More Valuable Witnesses For Case Re-opening Monday

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Interest in the trial of George A. McManus, race track bookmaker, for the murder of Arnold Rothstein, Broadway gambler, was heightened today by an eleven-hour drive of the prosecution for witnesses to strengthen its case. It was rumored that District Attorney Joab H. Banton has already corralled a "surprise witness" or two who will be sprung on the defense when the trial is resumed Monday.

The district attorney was uncommunicative this morning. He would not discuss rumors that one of his surprise witnesses will be Mrs. Marian A. Putnam, of Asheville, N. C. she is said to have been registered at the Park Central hotel on the night of Nov. 4, 1928—the night Rothstein was shot, presumably in Room 349 where he went to confer with half a dozen men in response to a telephone call. She is said to have occupied room 420, directly across the hall.

Eddie Rehill, Mont Forney and Will Reed, carriers, and David Thomas, clerk, were absent from the post office force today. Most of them are taking a part of their vacation at the present time.

TOYLANDS ARE BEING OPENED

Annual Fairyland Pilgrimages Of Children To Have Cal.

Santa Claus is preparing for the rush of orders received from thousands of children every year. This year, however, more than ever before, the orders will ask for modern, up to date toys.

The strange, mysterious and entrancing dream world of toys is about to be again brought into touch with reality. For Toyland is opening in our local stores.

Toyland—a fairy-land full of unreal things, which, after all may be the only real things from the child's point of view. And this attitude of enthusiasm and interest is the right one.

Toys are different every year, and yet ever the same. They follow the line of mechanical improvements and so now, we have toy air-planes, toy autos, baby blimps, sea-planes, buses, trains, everything modern in miniature.

Toyland is full of entrancing things—teddy bears, elephants, steam engines, electric trains, scooters, sleds, skates, kiddy cars, toy wrist-watches, dogs which can be twisted into any possible and impossible positions.

AMERICANISM: Zealously meddling in one another's private affairs; looking on in silent indifference while a few men waste earth's store of oil and gas.

HOLA, THE HUNT

When the circle was completed Grass-Green stepped inside the ring and blew a shrill blast on a tiny horn. At the signal Stag and Rose took their places, one on either side of Grass-Green.

"The hunt is on. Hola, the hunt!" shrilled Grass-Green, loudly. And all the forest answered. Hurrah, the hunt is on!" Again the band tuned up, and two by two the beetles grouped themselves in line behind the three big beetles in the center of the ring. A second blast on the tiny horn and out of the circle, down the garden path, scurried Grass-Green and Stag and Rose. After them scuttled the others.

Peter wanted to see the fun and ran as fast as he could to catch up with the hunters. But the clumsy beetles got in his way. One fellow bumped into him with such force that the fellow fell on his nose in the gravel. When he picked himself up the beetles were so far ahead that he knew his two legs would never carry him to them. The beetle who had tripped him never stopped to see if he was hurt. Even Lady Bird seemed to have forgotten all about him in the excitement of the moment.

"Impolite little thing," murmured Peter, his feelings hurt at Lady Bird's neglect. "She, at least, might have stayed by me, since it was she, in the first place, who nipped me to the hunt. As for that chap who bumped into me—wait 'till I catch him! Just for spite I hope none of the beetles bag any game. Come to think of it, nobody told me what they are after."

Peter was in no good humor, and little wonder, for the grave had scratched his face and now it began to smart. He decided to go down to the brook and bathe it.

Next: "Surprise Attack."

FARM CALENDAR

Timely Reminders From The Pennsylvania State College School of Agriculture

Cut Poor Trees First—In cutting the annual supply of firewood, the poor trees in the woodlot should be taken first, foresters at State College recommend. Thinning out the undesirable trees will allow room for the good specimens to develop into more valuable timber.

Balance Dairy Ration—The amount of protein necessary in a grain mixture for dairy cows depends to a great extent on the kind of hay fed. With alfalfa hay a grain mixture containing about 16 per cent of crude digestible protein. If clover hay is fed about 20 per cent of protein is necessary. Timothy hay requires about 24 per cent of protein to balance the mixture properly.

Use Winter Vegetables—Parsnips and salsify are often left in the garden over the winter and used in the early spring. Why not dig these vegetables in the fall, store them in shallow pits, and have them available during the winter also?

Cull Pullets Closely—Rigid culling

the offices of the New Castle plant on East street. Approximately fifty were in attendance, and Joseph T. Campbell, local manager, presided at the session. The principal speakers of the evening were George Gray, chairman of the safety committee of the Pittsburgh group and S. C. Ross, district manager of the Pittsburgh group. They gave most interesting talks on the safe handling of gas.

This was followed by a general discussion in which many of the employees participated. Some of the things discussed were the problems of high and low pressure systems, what to do in the case of a leak, in a hurryup job of any kind or in case of a disaster.

An interesting program of music followed, as presented by Wayne Cannon and H. O. Heinemann. The affair was brought to a close with the serving of a lunch.

Personal Workers Also To Meet Sunday At First Baptist Revival

"Youth in many cases, has lost its head," asserted Pastor, William W. Ayer of Gary, Ind., last night before a large audience at the First Baptist church. "Youth and Debauched Vessels," was his theme, based upon the dramatic incident of Belshazzar's feast.

The song service was led by Paul Cook with Miss Mary Koch at the piano. Special musical features were: A chorus by the Young Peoples Society and a trio by the Koch family; Mary, Margaret and Paul, with their sister, Mrs. Kasola playing the accompaniment. Prayer was offered by Rev. Cobb, the newly installed pastor of the Harmony Baptist church.

First prize for bringing the largest number of neighbors, was given to Mrs. B. A. Masson who was successful in bringing nine of her neighbors. Second prize was awarded to Mrs. D. R. Smith, who had five neighbors with her.

On Sunday Mr. Ayer will address the Men's Bible Class at 9:30 a. m. the subject, "Samson, a Tragedy of Life." His subject at the church service will be, "Rachel Weeping for Her Children." In the afternoon at 2:30 the personal workers will meet at the church, then go out to make calls upon prospective members. ## Women Extinguish Fire In Church

Firemen from the Seventh ward department were called to St. Lucia's church on South Liberty street at 9:45 this morning by an alarm from Box 74.

Women of the church were engaged in cleaning the structure and some one hung a lighted incense burner in a cupboard. The smoldering burner set fire to a curtain in the cupboard causing damage of approximately $20. The women noting the blaze put it out with buckets of water before the firemen arrived.

OH, THESE WOMEN!

By LEOLA ALLARD

College boys are great fun, and the debutants adore them. But they are not an awful lot of help when the first of the month comes around. If anybody realizes this, it's the parents of the college boys, who pay their bills. So if there are any sisters, mama wants them to meet a few business men. It was not such a laughing matter, when the blonde "whom gentle" preferred told you, that "a diamond bracelet lasts forever."

The result of paying the college bills has taught the mammas in society that if the business men won't come to parties that last till 6 a. m., then the parties must adjourn at 3 a. m. If they don't come, then something else will be tried. Business men have nothing against the debs, heaven knows, but the best hours for gathering in the sheaves, are the hours when the society young folks are pounding their pillows. A fine sport but no percentage in it.

It is likely, after the late Black Tuesday, that the party hours will have to be slipped up a bit further, and if business men are attracted, end at something like one o'clock.

The debs can always get men to attend parties, but they are the kind who have always had money and never learned how to make money, and brought face to face with a choice between work and starvation.

In America the Mammas are setting that question. They like the men they choose for steady company, but they INVITE practically all of the successful, whether they like them or not. If a very modern girl marries a successful man, she thinks she can still choose her steady company. (If I'm wrong, write me.) Copyright 1929 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Road Supervisors
Meet At MercerAnnual County Convention Is Held Friday; Other News
Of District

MERCER, Pa., Nov. 16.—The annual road supervisors' convention of Mercer county was held Friday in the assembly room of the courthouse.

Over 100 road men of the 32 county townships were present for the morning and afternoon sessions.

The theme of the meetings was the construction of township roads. This phase of road building was stressed throughout the program. Hon. T. C. Cochran, congressman of the 28th Pennsylvania district; T. E. Frame of Franklin, district engineer of the State Highway Department in charge of Mercer county road building; County Commissioner Harry Hunter and Assemblyman Rev. H. M. Stevenson of Farrell were speakers during the day.

A report of the state convention was made by J. W. Black, the retiring president, well-known county auditor.

MANY DOGS TAGGED

To date have been issued 9,060 dog licenses for 1929. The number is 100 in excess of the 1928 total issue. The record issue was 9,140. The 1929 total will hardly reach this figure, is the opinion of Treasurer G. R. McQuiston.

BAIL INCREASED

Bail was set at the sum of $4,000 for the release of Jason Webster, Utica farmer, held in the county jail here by state police since the first of the week. There are two charges of stealing sheep against Webster. The bail was provided by his friends.

FACED WITH PROBLEM

Decision will be made soon by the county commissioners on their course of action in financing the installation of the 45 voting machines they must buy to comply with the law in 1930. They will cost that many thousands dollars more, it is said. To take this sum out of the county tax and "carry over" with the county program at the present levy is impossible. Three courses are open, a bond issue, increased tax levy or loan. Which of the three they will elect will be decided at a meeting soon.

BIRD SEASON ENDS

Yesterday was the last of the 1929 season for bird shooting. The fact accounted for several hundred county hunters afield at an early hour.

The bird season of 1929 will go down in history as one of the worst that local nimrods can remember. It is the unanimous opinion of Mercer hunters. Not only are the birds becoming scarcer each year, but hunting them is becoming more and more of an achievement, say the old-timers. Many of the best farms for birds have been closed to hunters.

Post Office Gets Outside Room For Christmas RushAuthorized To Handle Mail At Henry Hotel; Office Taxed
To Limit

New Castle postoffice authorities were today authorized to take over the vacant corner room of the Henry hotel, South Mercer street, for the handling of Christmas mail which has taxed the local office to capacity during the past few seasons.

In a petition to Washington headquarters, Postmaster Crawford stressed the need for extra room. During the 1928 holiday season it was about all that the local office could do to handle the parcels and other mail.

Two experienced men will be stationed at the hotel building to sack outgoing mail, and other assistants will be on hand to carry out numerous other duties.

All mailings will be done at the post-office, however, officials state. Plans for extending outside counters to handle an even larger number of patrons than last year are being made.

Councilmen-Elect
Probably To Sit
At Budget Session

It is probable that Councilmen-elect Louis Genkinger and Stanley Treser will be invited to sit with the present council when the 1930 budget is discussed and compiled although no public statement to this effect has yet been made.

The new council will consist of Mayor Gillespie, Councilmen Burns, Reeves, Genkinger and Treser as Councilmen Davies and Burns leave office in January.

It has been the practice for councilmen-elect to sit with budget compilers as sometimes their views for the future are desired.

New Castle Firm
Awarded Outside
School Contract

The W. G. Eckles company, local architect firm, was awarded the contract for the erection of a new five-room high school at Hooker, Butler county, by the North Washington township school board at its meeting last night.

The new school according to the Eckles company will contain a gymnasium and auditorium. The estimated cost of construction will be $45,000.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Storm wave expected to cross continent during week centering on 18 is expected to be a warm storm center and of only moderate force, moving well down into southern states; after storm center has passed, average temperatures are expected to drop to lower levels over the entire continent, rainfall increase and storm force become more severe; in fact, I expect last ten days of November to be a wintry period.

Storm wave of moderate force, expected to cross continent during week centering on 24, will be a cold storm center. Some very severe storms will be expected in northern hemisphere during last ten days of November and first week of December, 1930.

Great increase in precipitation during December, especially on north Pacific slope. This will aid early spring crops, as it will give ample sub-soil moisture for spring work.

But we always have Jupiter with us, so they said that certain positions of Jupiter, relative to sun and earth, caused precipitation on the earth. ## UP, UP THEY GO!

There's a competition on in town to see who can build the tallest skyscraper. Chrysler is holding the palm for a month or so with the place in East 42nd street, named after himself. The Chrysler pile is 68 stories. Day by day George Ohrstrom is adding granite to steel down in Wall street. When he's finished Chrysler will retire before George's 72-tiered giant. In the meantime, they're getting busy on the old Waldorf story for the Empire State building, which is to rear its proud head 80 stories into the clouds.

The tiny 60-story Woolworth building that for 17 years topped all the rest of Manhattan's towers has shrunk into drab oblivion. While the poor old Flatiron building, granddaddy of 'em all, never gets the merest tumble. Many a New Yorker wouldn't be able to tell you just where the old Flatiron building is situated.

Revival To Close
Sunday EveningErickson Revival Services At Alliance Gospel Tabernacle
Nearing Conclusion

The revival services that are now going on at the Alliance Gospel tabernacle still draw overflow crowds. The meeting is to close Sunday night with a grand finale planned for Sunday. A special service will be held in the afternoon at 2:30 in which Rev. Erickson will preach on the subject of "The Holy Spirit." A great mass meeting for this service is planned.

Last night saw the church filled long before the time the service was announced to start and as usual the meeting was started ahead of time with a song service led by Mrs. Erickson after which a testimonial service was held.

Rev. Erickson spoke on God Provision for man. "When God calls from the world into His service he does so with the thought in mind that He will take care of us. God in His great love for man has made a remedy for man's needs both soul and body."

Mrs. Erickson sang with telling effect the song Heaven. The whole church was moved because of the wonderful way in which the song was rendered. A special musical program is arranged for tonight with some special songs.

Its age is a private matter

It is very difficult to discover, by its appearance, how old a Lincoln is. Lincoln believes in making automobiles so beautiful that they are always modern — so durable that they simply won't wear out. The age of a Lincoln is no one's concern — least of all its owner's. On the boulevard a Lincoln of last season is as good as the newest model share honors equally with Lincolns years older than either.

So fine is this car that a year or so of use does not perceptibly detract from any of its splendid qualities. Lincoln owners are often men who can, and do, provide the best professional care for their cars. Sometimes such well-kept cars are available at very attractive prices from Lincoln dealers. The wisdom of investing in such a motor car is quite evident, and shrewd buyers are quick to take advantage of the opportunity.

A few such Lincolns are now to be seen on our floor. Every one is in perfect mechanical condition. We are always glad to demonstrate them to you, without the slightest obligation. Drop in today.

The Parent Problem

by GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

Check Up On Child's Needs At Bedtime
And Then Act As If You Are A Bit Deaf

"Mother, I want a drink," calls Tilly two years old. Mother goes, and Tilly is quite satisfied.

"Now go to sleep, and don't call me again, my dear."

Returns the mother to her kitchen or library. In about five minutes Tilly calls again: "Mama, ma-ma, mama!" Mother, a little annoyed goes. "Please tuck me in," the tender toddler says. The mother notices. Once more she cautions Tilly not to call, and goes away. "Baby must have gone to sleep," the mother tells herself, after about ten minutes more.

But all at once there comes the little voice again. This time the mother has resolved to scold the child, and her step is pretty firm. But she doesn't. Tilly gets ahead. "I must go to the toilet." "Very well, my dear," replies the softened mother, and Tilly makes the ceremony last as long as possible. Again the mother leaves with the usual admonition to keep quiet and go to sleep. "Now, don't call again, sweetheart." "I won't, mama," comfortable Tilly answers.

The child is almost in the land of dreams when she hears the doorbell ring, and pretty soon strange voices she wonders who the people are, and what they look like. She listens quietly for several minutes when she hears her mother tell the guests she has gone to sleep. Then slowly she begins: "Ma-ma, ma-ma, ma-ma."

And so tonight, in many thousand homes, a similar scene is being acted out, with the child delaying sleep an hour or two after he or she is put to bed, and the foolish parents giving him the unnecessary attention he so much enjoys.

A friend of mine told me of this curious experience. Said he: "We have a boy of four. One evening we had a very reliable woman come in to keep him while my wife and I went to the theater. We told the woman that whenever the child called she should go to him, and that after he had grown wholly quiet for a few minutes she should go to see that he was properly covered."

On our return the woman told us that he did not call, and that when she went to see about him at the end of 15 minutes he was sound asleep. On a later evening we went out again. This time, on our return, we learned that the lad was found asleep after only five short minutes. We were surprised, of course, for it generally had taken him an hour to go to sleep for us. We at last discovered that the woman who had stayed with him was stone deaf."

Here is a tip for you if you have a similar problem. Act as if you are deaf. Let the child call, but do not answer him. As you see him off to bed, tell him that when you leave you are not coming back. Don't tell him not to call; merely say that you will not return. Then don't lie. There's the rub. Parents generally are liars.

Before you go, check on the usual items: "Now let us see, you have been to the toilet, you have had a drink, you have said your prayers, and I have tucked you in. Good night!"

Drastic Steps Urged Against Headlight Evil

Head Of Pennsylvania Motor Federation Finds Inspection Has Not Aided Problem

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 16.—Drastic steps to curb the headlight menace were advocated today by E. Edward Gable, president of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation. "Educational measures have failed, the Statewide inspection recently ended has brought us little, if any nearer a solution of the problem," he said, "and the next move should be strict enforcement by State and local authorities of the law regulating lighting equipment on motor vehicles."

"It had been hoped and expected," Mr. Gable explained, "that the Statewide inspection of vehicles would solve the headlight problem in Pennsylvania for a while at least, but the inspection period is over and we still have with us in goodly numbers faulty lights that are a bane to all who drive at night. On a trip over the Lincoln Highway from York to Lancaster one evening recently I passed nine cars with but one headlight, yet eight of these vehicles bore official 'inspection and approved' stickers, indicating that the lights had gone bad after the inspection. Numerous similar instances have come to my attention in various parts of the State."

The Federation president cited facts and figures showing that most night accidents on streets and highways in Pennsylvania are caused by dazzling or otherwise defective lights. This means, he said, that if headlight conditions are corrected the number of accidents will be reduced materially. His statement continued:

"Just how to go about this is a problem. For some time we have been seeking to end the headlight evil through educational measures, by calling on car owners to see that their lights comply with the law. In many instances this advice has been followed, but the majority of drivers pay little or no attention to their headlights unless forced to do so."

"The compulsory inspection was provided for by the Legislature, with an idea that it would take care of the headlight situation, and of brakes, steering apparatus and other mechanical equipment as well. This helped to a certain extent to remedy the light situation, but fell far short of being a cure. The inspection was good so far as it went, but what is needed now is to follow this inspection with a careful check-up and strict enforcement of the law by State and local authorities."

"If car owners will not, of their own volition, see to it that lighting equipment is O. K. at all times, it is up to the State motor patrol and the local police to enforce the law to the letter."

Senior High School Democracy Class Attends Meetings Of School Board And Council

(Contributed)

The "Problems of Democracy" classes of the New Castle High School under the supervision of Miss Elsie F. Calvin, are doing their work by the laboratory method. At present they are studying local government; in accordance with the above method, the students had the pleasure of visiting a regular monthly meeting of the school board, Thursday evening, and a meeting of the council, Friday morning.

The students were intensely interested in the methods of procedure at both meetings. They were surprised to see how informally they were conducted.

Only nine of the students were over to attend the school board meeting, but those who were learned several things they will not forget. Before the meeting began, they were given a copy of the reports of the business that was to come before the board that evening. Thus they were better able to comprehend what was taking place.

The students were especially interested in the matters pertaining to the high school which were brought up and discussed.

Approximately eighty students attended the meeting of the council, Friday morning. On the whole, it was exceedingly interesting to watch the machinery of the local government at work.

"GOD COULDN'T BE EVERYWHERE, SO HE MADE MOTHERS."

This proverb, even the pagan recognizes in the mother, a God appointed guardian of the race.

Our own city knows no greater need than just such guardianship or mothering—for our homes, for our schools, for our recreations and for our public housekeeping. To aid such work is the aim of this column.

ACES OF DIAMONDS IN DOMESTIC SCIENCE COURSES

Some of us remember of hearing Russell Conwell many years ago give his incomparable lectures on "Aces of Diamonds" based on the story of a man who saw no chance to get ahead on his farm where he was particularly disgusted with the little stream of water flowing through it on account of the greasy scum which rose to its surface. So he sold out the farm and went west. The man who bought his despoiled place bored for oil and amassed millions.

SCHOOL COURSES CANNOT MAKE COOKS

Cooperation between home and school is nowhere more essential to success than in the teaching of the arts of the household. The work of the school is a great help in stimulating interest, in providing up to date methods and scientific balancing of the meal in its food values, but it is not possible for a girl to have opportunity at school for the practice necessary to make a cook, for it takes repetition of effort in the preparation of foods before independence and skill are gained.

Perhaps because cooking is three times every day such a common occurrence the value of its teaching is constantly underestimated.

There is quite a difference between learning to prepare one dish and being able to have all the foods necessary to a meal prepared and ready to serve at the same time. We must not forget that in addition to knowing how to cook, executive ability is needed in the management of a meal.

One of the most interesting things connected with the cooking classes and most prized by the girls is the preparation and serving of meals in the model apartment. Mothers would be fairly consumed with pride if they could see these young girls after they have donned their becoming caps and aprons, as they deftly serve the food they have helped to prepare—to guests seated at a table which the young hands have set with every article in its appointed place.

An accomplishment of the highest grade in embryo is here recognized which only the patient helpful interest of the mother can assure fulfillment.

INDEPENDENCE GAINED FROM TEACHING OF SEWING

The difference in the nature of the two lines of work makes it much easier to gain independence in sewing than in cooking. It is really remarkable how skillful many of the girls in the seventh and eighth grades of the city quickly become in the fashioning of garments. They are taught exactness in the art of using patterns, the different varieties of seams, dif-

British Explorer Is Found Dead In Home At London

Hon. Richard Bethell, Who Accompanied Carter Expedition To King Tut's Tomb Dies

International News Service

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The Hon. Richard Bethell, who assisted the famous archeologist Howard Carter in the opening of the tomb of Tutankhamen at Luxor, Egypt, was found dead today in his bedroom at the Bath Club.

Bethell apparently died in his sleep. The cause of death is not yet known.

The death of Bethell, formerly a captain in the Scots Guards and the son and heir of the third Baron Westbury, recalls the superstition which surrounded the opening of the Pharaoh's tomb some years ago.

In the mausoleum, now world famed because of the beauty of the ancient Egyptian relics found there, was discovered a papyrus on which was written a curse, threatening death to any who disturbed the mummy of the king or the contents of his tomb.

Recall Curse

Not long after the discovery, Lord Carnarvon, who was associated with Carter in the excavations which led to its finding, died suddenly.

The superstitious Egyptians were convinced that the ancient curse had been borne out, and freely predicted that all others concerned in the excavations would suffer a similar fate.

Carter, however, ridiculed these suspicions, and they had become little more than a memory when Bethell's sudden death recalled the ancient curse today.

Captain Bethell served in the World War from 1914 to 1916 when he was invalided out of service.

On Blaming Woman

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR.

"The stagnation in farm prices can be traced directly to our women folks," declared Dr. Aaron Shot, V. S. R. F. D. Box 14, last night in a ringing speech before the Farm Relief Club at Apple Grove Schoolhouse. "This reducin' fad that's sweepin' the country has cut food consumption one-half. Not only has the farmer's stock raiser suffered irreparable damage but the country is flooded with thin-spired women an' girls. It's also hit the big car business, fer five or six women kin now ride comfortably in a roadster. To be sure they take up less space in street cars an' elevators, but it's creatin' a surplus o' foodstuffs in this country that not only threatens food production but spells the ruination o' all business." Ever since the days of Adam an' Eve woman has been blamed fer everything. Her exposed knees are said to be one of the underlinin' causes o' the present reign o' crime while her determination to work downtown is said to be the cause o' hundreds o' thousands o' jobless college graduates prowlin' aimlessly over the country. If a boy turns out to be a bandit he's supposed to take after his maw. If a feller runs off from his wife, she's blamed fer not makin' a home fer him an' if a feller resumes to run fer office they say his wife is ambitious. If a husband is caught playin' pool after 6 p. m. it's said he has no home life an' if he sticks around home it's said he's henpecked an' has to wash an' iron. If a boy is wild an' triffin' we say his mother humors him. If a husband's neck needs shavin' ever-buddy says his wife neglects him, an' if a couple has no children the populace pities the poor husband. If a girl is found in a lonely spot hacked to pieces ever-buddy says, "Where wuz her mother?" When some wife tuz finally has to Kill a husband she's called a tigress. If a wife is the least bit out o' date or jakey ever-buddy says the same thing "I wonder what her husband sees in her?" an' if a wife is a good, snappy manager it's generally suspected that she's destroyed all her husband's initiative. If a wife happens to be modest an' homely, ever-buddy wonders if her husband hasn't got when Mormon comes an' kin go to work. When some husband busts up an' falls in business the first thing somebody wants to know is "Who wuz his wife before he married her?" If some husband seems to be reasonably happy it's allus said, "His wife got him buffaloe'd" an' if a farmer moves to town ever-buddy says that his wife made him do it. An' if some husband suddenly skips out owin' ever-buddy, it's because "his wife alius did wear the best hats in town," an' so goes.

"Water Boy," 82 Years Old Is Popular One

David Carr of Volant is without doubt the most popular "water boy" in all this "neck o' th' woods". He carries his age so well that no one, not even his near friends, would ever imagine that he has seen 82 years roll by. The fact that he knows where the coldest and purest and most sparkling water can be found, and that he carries drinking water from the wells and springs to the men who are constructing the Volant-East Brook improved highway, has given him the title of "The Water Boy." The men look for uncle Davey and appreciate his service so much that when he hands them the dipper and they proceed to quench their thirst, they invariably say "thank you." The road is about completed and the faithful water carrier can remain in doors where it is warm, while the snows and winter winds drive along the highway.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

The Story Of The World War 168—The Treaty Of Brest-Litovsk.

IN DECEMBER, 1917, A RUSSIAN DELEGATION, HEADED BY LEON TROTSKY, ARRIVED AT BREST-LITOVSK ON THE POLISH BORDER TO ARRANGE A TRUCE WITH THE GERMANS FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF A SEPARATE PEACE BETWEEN THE BOLSHIEVIST GOVERNMENT AND THE CENTRAL POWERS. AN ARMISTICE, TO LAST A MONTH, WAS SIGNED AT BREST-LITOVSK ON DECEMBER 15.

WHILE THESE NEGOTIATIONS WERE IN PROGRESS, TWO GREAT RUSSIAN PROVINCES, FINLAND AND THE UKRAINE, DECLARED THEIR INDEPENDENCE. AND IN JANUARY, 1918, THE NEW GOVERNMENT OF THE UKRAINE CONCLUDED A SEPARATE PEACE WITH THE CENTRAL POWERS.

AT BREST-LITOVSK THE BOLSHIEVISTS ARGUED FOR A PEACE WITH NO ANNEXATIONS OR INDEMNITIES. BUT THE GERMANS REFUSED TO EVACUATE THE RUSSIAN TERRITORY HELD BY THEIR ARMIES. IN THE END THE BOLSHIEVISTS, INTIMIDATED BY A RENEWED ADVANCE OF THE GERMAN ARMIES, SUBMITTED TO GERMANY'S TERMS, AND ON MARCH 2, 1918, SIGNED A TREATY THAT WAS MOST HUMILIATING TO RUSSIA.

BY THE TERMS OF THIS TREATY RUSSIA LOST SOME 300,000 SQUARE MILES OF HER TERRITORY AND ABOUT 56,000,000 OF HER PEOPLE. RUSSIA WAS DEFINITELY OUT OF THE WORLD WAR. GERMANY COULD NOW WITHDRAW HUGE ARMIES FROM THE EAST AND HURL THEM AGAINST THE ALLIES ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

Tobias And Peters Box Here Monday Night

BY RUBE GOLDBERG

Indian Hopes To Trim New Yorker

Leading Boxing Promoters Will Have Eyes On Jolly Bowl

ROMEO PACELLI TO MEET JOEY KATKISH

By ED FRITZ

Phil Tobias and Ernie Peters, internationally known flyweights, meet in a 16-round return bout at Jolly bowl Monday night and the outcome will be watched for by every leading promoter of boxing in the world.

Tobias defeated Peters here last September but since the bout in the Jolly bowl Peters has chalked up victories in California and a week ago Monday night met Rudy Bradley at Madison Square Garden, New York City.

Bradley, who hails from Toronto, has defeated most of the flyweights but he was staggered around in the last two rounds of the garden fight and though the decision was given Bradley the writers wrote that the award was unpopular. Due to some reason, unknown here, Tobias was not picked for the first round of the elimination. He claims a victory over Midget Wolgast and Peters and therefore felt that he had a perfect right to start shouting "discrimination."

Following the garden fight in which Black Bill beat Willie Davies, Eugene Huat beat Izzy Schwartz and Midget Wolgast took a questionable decision over Johnny McCoy, talk centered around Peters and Tobias.

Bob Levy, who piloted Battling Siki until he was slain and who also manages Tobias, openly defied flyweights. He said that the first Peters-Tobias bout here was a hum-dinger the flyweights were remated.

Dropped Three Times.

Tobias dropped Peters three times here and in the middle rounds it looked like curtains for the Indian. As the fight eased into the latter rounds he astonished everybody with a garrison finish.

They punched each other from the first until the last bell. There was not a dull moment in the entire fight. Fans were thrilled from the top of their head to the soles of their feet.

There are two cities where flyweights shine—Toronto and New Castle. Other cities are starting to take to the 112 pounders and as the flyweights are becoming active all promoters will watch the result of the Jolly bowl bout.

The semi-final scheduled between Romeo Pacelli of this city and Joey Katkish of Pittsburgh appears to be quite inviting. Joey weighs about 125 but in order to get a fight with Pacelli agreed to let Pacelli weigh 127 pounds.

Pacelli was scheduled to box a week ago Monday but could not go on owing to an alleged injury. The coming fight is getting somewhere. If he beats Katkish his stock will go up before going any other place and Romeo favors that idea.

Wants Action Regularly.

In fact Romeo has declared that he wants to keep performing at the bowl in hope of vanquishing all his opponents and making the fans realize that he is getting somewhere. If he beats Katkish his stock will go up. Paul Balt of Pittsburgh and Bud Hardy of Beaver Falls, a pair of 128 pounders, will go on in the six-round preliminary. There should be no lost motion in this bout. Both have fought slugging fights here.

Johnny Jennings, this city, will meet Tommy Howell, a rugged 133 pounder of Cleveland, in his first trip to the ring in several months. Johnny trains every day and is rounding into splendid shape.

An unusually good four-round bout between two colored middleweights has been carded. The pugilists are far above the preliminary four-round type. They are Larry Gaston of Cleveland and Jimmy McVey of Akron.

Owing to the first Tobias-Peters bout, Ernie's fight at Madison Square Garden, Tobias' cry of discrimination and the desire of Peters to even up with Tobias, plus four other good bouts the crowd should be better than usual.

The first bout will start at 8:15 p. m. It is not yet known who will referee or judge the battles. The fighters will arrive here Sunday and weigh in at 3 o'clock Monday at the bowl.

Duquesne Defeats Westminster 31 To 7 In Night Contest

Westminster Puts Up Great Game At Forbes Field In Face Of Overwhelming Odds

Tramblay Thrills Crowd With 38-Yard Run For Touchdown; Big Crowd Sees Game

By "BUGS" WALTHER
Staff Correspondent

FORBES FIELD, PITTSBURGH, Nov. 15.—Coach Elmer Layden's Duquesne University football team rode to a 31 to 7 victory over Westminster College eleven here last evening. The "Dukes" held the upper-hand on the Titans in every period. The game played under flood-lights at the home of the Pirates, Forbes Field, drew a crowd estimated at 18,000. The weather was cold, but the night was clear.

The "Dukes" scored a touchdown in the first few minutes of play. Haldy kicked off for the Beede coached team and the quartet of Duquesne backs—Donnell, Kovalchek, Benedict, and Devinney, started a march down the field that resulted in Kovalchek going over from the one foot mark. Donnell was wide with a kick for the extra-point.

12-0 at Half

Westminster tightened for the remainder of the first quarter and held the Layden team scoreless. Early in the second quarter the Dukes again tallied with Benedict crashing through right-tackle for five yards and a touchdown. Donnell again missed the extra-point by placement. Coach Layden after the second touchdown sent in ten new men to replace his varsity.

The end of the first half found the Duquesne team leading 12 to 0. The Titan defense stiffened after the second and touchdown for the Pittsburghers. Westminster threatened to score in the late moments of the first half by rushing to the Dukes 24-yard line, but a pass over the goal-line to Brownlee failed and the Duquesne team took the ball on downs on their own 20-yard line.

Duquesne scored on a pass from Christina to Chacko in the third period, after repeated thrusts at the line had carried the ball to the Westminster 24-yard line. Chacko caught the pass on the 3-yard line and stepped over the line. Sullivan place-kicked the extra point.

Tramblay Thrills Crowd

Tramblay scored for the Dukes when he intercepted a pass from Michaels on the Westminster 38-yard line and scampered through a broken field for a touchdown. Sullivan missed a try for another point by placement.

Westminster denied the Duquesne goal-line late in the fourth quarter by virtue of a blocked punt on the 24-yard line. Michaels ran the end for six yards. Deacle ran out-of-bounds for a yard. Campbell picked up a yard at center, for a first-down. Westminster on the Duquesne three-yard line. Several Duquesne substitutes raged on the field. Deacle in two plunges at the line was over for a touchdown. Haldy tossed a pass to Michaels for the extra-point.

Donnell Races 32-yards

Haldy kicked off for Westminster to the Duke 34-yard line, with Kovalchek receiving. Burns fumbled but recovered for no gain. "Buff" Donnell threaded his way through the Westminster team for a gain of 32 yards carrying the ball to the Westminster 34-yard line.

Burns ran left-end for a touchdown after a sprint of 34 yards. Donnell again missed the extra-point by placement.

The game ended soon after the fifth touchdown by the Dukes, with Westminster in possession of the ball on their own 45-yard line.

Coach Layden crossed up the Titans by starting his varsity team after making announcements that his second string men would begin the game.

The Westminster team made a great stand against a mighty good Duquesne team, but was unable to gain consistently through the heavy Duquesne line. Michaels, Haldy, and Deacle shared the limelight for the Titans. Sullivan, Tramblay, Koval-chek, and Burns took the play away from their captain "Buff" Donnell.

Class Games At Washington High

The 9-A1 team won the championship of the ninth grade by virtue of their 25 to 17 victory over the 9-B5 team yesterday afternoon at George Washington Junior high floor.

Habib with eight field goals was the big shot for the winners, while Wilson and McIlwain were the best for the losers.

BESSEMER HIGH CLASS B CHAMPIONS

Defeats Union. On Friday 12-9

Hard Battle Is Waged On Scotland Lane Grid
By Teams

THRILLS GALORE IN CRUCIAL GAME

Union high school's hopes for class B football championship of Lawrence county flattered away under a 12 to 9 score at the Scotland Lane field on Friday, when the powerful Bessemer eleven succeeded in winning the game by the three-point margin. The game proved one of the most colorful gridiron combats in Lawrence county football history.

By virtue of their win, Bessemer now ranks as class B champions of the county, and probably of the tri-county league.

Union was scored against in the first and third periods, when a plunge and wide end run worked too quickly for the local township boys, and resulted in touchdowns for Bessemer. Throughout the fray Union furnished noticeable resistance, but for lack of scoring vim failed in several efforts to take the ball across.

It was an entire new Union team that entered the third quarter, as far as vigor is concerned. Bessemer didn't advance as it had in the first half, and when it did it was only with a struggle against powerful opposition. Union had already scored once and the game was nearing the end when a Union back punted the ball on his fourth down, the ball spiraling down the field and rolling out of bounds within a few feet of Bessemer's goal.

The Bessemer quarter called for a punt and the back went behind the goal to punt. The ball was snapped but not in time to prevent the kick from being blocked by Wallace, Union center. When the kick was blocked the ball rolled out of bounds behind the end zone, giving Union two points on a safety. Had the ball not rolled out of bounds Union would have been given a touchdown.

In conformance to the rules referee Richards took the ball to the Bessemer 20-yard line, where Bessemer kicked off to Union. The blue and white clad boys returned the ball and were on their 10-yard line with 30 seconds to play. Jaworski, Union backer, called for a try at field goal. The kick fell flat and the game ended.

Outstanding in the Union line-up were Wallace, Sniezek, Latimer and Pietrowitz, with Mateja and Augustyn in the backfield. Grist and Levinson and Vlah were consistent ground gainers for Bessemer.

Following is the game by quarters:

First Quarter

Union punts, Augustine to Vlah of Bessemer, who was downed in his tracks. Levinson is stopped in a left tackle play and Grist makes two at center. Grist punts to the Union 20-yard line, where Jaworski of Union returns the ball 10 yards. Union's ball on their own 30-yard line. On line plays by Mateja and Jaworski Union falls to gain and Augustyn punts to middle field. Grist receives the ball and is downed in his tracks. Vlah, on a fake pass, is stopped at center and Grist makes 15 at left end. Bessemer's entire backfield then launched a terrific line drive which netted them 15 yards.

Union makes substitution, Cerebba for Mateja and Cevera for Stockman. Levinson of Bessemer then plunges through right guard for first touchdown of the game. Vlah failed to plunge across for the extra point. Union receives the kick-off, Latimer receiving on his own 45 line, carrying it to his 55-yard line. On a series of line plunges and forward passes by Augustyn to Monica Union fails to make first down. Augustyn punts to Bessemer's 35-yard line and then Levinson fails to gain on end run. Vlah fumbles and Cerebba recovers for Union. Jaworski made five through center. Decerbo then is replaced by Nord in the Bessemer line-up. Augustyn makes first down by a line plunge, placing the ball on Bessemer's 40-yard line. Quarter ends. Score: Bessemer 6, Union 0.

Second Quarter

Augustyn passes to Jaworski, who fails to catch pass. Kiminkinen subs for Martin in the Bessemer line-up. Monica and Jaworski make 3. On a series of line plunges by Monica and Augustyn Union loses the ball on downs. Grist is stopped on left tackle play.

Levinson makes 4 through right end. Bessemer punts to Union 40-yard line, where Jaworski receives for Union, but fumbles. McConaghy recovers for Union. Bessemer intercepts pass, but is stopped in his tracks.

On a series of plays by Levinson and Grist Bessemer makes first down on Union's 20-yard line. At this point in the game Bessemer punts a beautiful lateral pass which nets them a long gain. On plays by Grist and Kiminkinen go through the line, but fail to make first down and Union receives the ball on their own 15-yard line. Monica fails to gain through center. Stanish then goes out for Bessemer. Simonza subs. On plays through the line by Augustyn and Jaworski Union makes two first downs. Augustyn completes pass to Jaworski over line of scrimmage for gain of 6 yards. Another pass by Augustyn is knocked down. Union is forced to punt, Augustyn booting the ball from his own 35-yard line to Bessemer's 5-yard line, where the ball goes out of bounds. It was a beautiful punt. Bessemer punts, Grist kicking, but the ball only rolls 15 yards. McConaghy takes the ball, but is downed in his tracks. Score at end of half: Bessemer 6, Union 0.

Third Quarter

Bessemer punts to Union, Grist kicking, and Jaworski took the ball on his own 10-yard line, carrying the ball back on a beautiful wedge play to Union's 45-yard line. On next play Jaworski carries the ball for 5 yards. Plays by Augustyn and Mateja net the first down. Augustyn and Jaworski net another first down by end runs and off-tackle plays. The ball is on Bessemer's 35-yard line. Augustyn, on left end run, fumbles for Union and Kiminkinen recovers for Bessemer. Ball on Bessemer's 45-yard line. On next play Grist gets away on left end run from his 45-yard line for touchdown, running through the entire Union team. Levinson failed to make the extra point by the plunge method. Union receives again, Mateja taking the ball on his 45-yard line, but nets only 5 yards, placing the ball on Union 45-yard line. On next play Jaworski goes through right tackle for 5 yards. Augustyn makes 5 through center. Monica fails to gain at center. Union is penalized 15 yards for holding. On next play Jaworski nets 15 yards on fake line buck. Augustyn makes 10 yards around right end. Union punts to Bessemer's 5-yard line, where the ball is downed. On first down Grist carries the ball to Union and McConaghy receives, fumbles the ball and Bessemer recovers. Grist failed to gain on left end run. At this point McConaghy is taken out and Simolowski is substituted in his place. Levinson punts to Union's 45-yard line and Jaworski dodges opposing tacklers for 15 yards, placing the ball on Bessemer's 45-yard line. On next play Augustyn makes 10 yards at left end, placing the ball on Bessemer's 30-yard line. Bessemer is penalized at this five yards for off-ids. On next play Jaworski, for Union, on attempt around right end, loses 15 yards. Jaworski and Augustyn then net 15 yards on line plunges and plunges. Union loses ball on downs. Score: Bessemer 12, Union 0.

 The self-interest of the man who sells you a used car is a sure guide to value. If he is the surest today, his interest is in immediate profit. His business viewpoint is quite likely to be: "Let the buyer beware."
 But if the man from whom you buy is a Buick dealer then you have the best possible guarantee of your money's worth.
 For we have a reputation at stake. To stay in business we need satisfied customers. And satisfied customers are won only by honest value.
 When we sell you a used car we confidently look forward to the time when you will buy another and, after that, still another, or perhaps a new Buick or Marquette. The only way we can be sure that you will return to us is to give you good, honest value every time.
 We like to think that we would do this anyway, but the fact remains that self-interest compels us to do it. See our Used Cars first!

CLEVELAND, Nov. 16.—Like a child that does something it shouldn't unintentionally, investment trusts were probably the trigger that exploded the stock market, Colonel Lennard P. Ayres, internationally known economist, observed today in retrospect of the crash and collapse of stock prices last month.

"Investment trusts probably created the condition which resulted in the crash and collapse of stock prices," Colonel Ayres said, "but if so, they did it without being in any true sense responsible for it."

The economist pictured the market situation as a case of conflicting policies as between the experienced managers of the trusts on one hand, and the mass of inexperienced individual speculators on the other. Despite the crash, however, the speculative proclivities of the public have not by any means been curbed, or, apparently, discouraged.

The effect of the stock price decline, in the opinion of Colonel Ayres, was to wipe out the advances made in 1929. Now, since the crash, a substantial portion of the floating supply has been transferred from the hands of weak amateur speculators to the strong professionals—a condition which heretofore has constituted a foundation on which a new advancing market has been based.

Colonel Ayres dashed cold water, however, on those speculators who, concluding that because of the crash stocks must be cheap, cry "Buy! Buy!"

"The real fact is," the economist said, "that present stock prices in general are not low as measured by any of the reliable standards that prevailed before price recovery the latter part of last month."

The events leading up to stock market tragedy, according to Col. Ayres' review, were:

1.—The selling to the public of a billion dollars of investment trust stock in August and September.

2.—The persistent softening of other stock prices in the latter weeks of that period, brought about through the sale of stocks by investors in order to provide funds to buy the new issues of investment trusts.

3.—The sudden appearance of a billion dollars of increase in the loans made to brokers. Investment managers loaned their newly-secured funds because prevailing prices were too high. Their failure to buy, in turn, failed to offset the selling of investors.

4.—The great crash in stock prices.

5.—Then in the week when lowest prices were reached, a billion dollars came out of brokers' loans, presumably largely reflecting the buying of securities by the investment trusts with the money the public had entrusted to them in August and September.

trusted to them in August and September.

"The market this autumn has been a contest between a horde of small individual speculators and a small group of experienced operators having enormous resources," Colonel Ayres said in summing the situation up. "The latter won."

"As for the future, the economist observed that one consideration which may have an important bearing on the course of stock prices is that vast sum of corporation funds have been taken out of the loans to brokers and redeposited in banks.

"These funds will shortly be put to work somewhere," Col. Ayres said. "In part they will flow back into brokers' loans once more, but it seems probable that large amounts of them will be disbursed to stockholders as extra or increased dividends, and that other sums will now be used for plant extension and the expansion of business operations, these stock yields and to sustain business activity."

General business has slowed down somewhat and will probably slow down still more, Col. Ayres said, adding, "but a general slowing down in 1927 did not prevent the development of a bull market based on the easy credit policy of the Federal Reserve system."

Freighter Hits Rock, Beached

Salvage Tugs Rush To Cape Decision, Alaska, To Aid Floundering Freighter

(International News Service)

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 16.—Salvage tugs were hurrying to the assistance of the steel freighter Depere today after the vessel struck a rock last night and was beached in sinking condition at Port McArthur, near Cape Decision, Alaska.

There was no loss of life, according to the report received by the Harbor Radio Department, the only source of information concerning the shipwreck.

A bulletin received by the department stated that the Depere was sending out SOS signals after ramming the rock in the dark. Shortly afterward she was reported floundering toward shore and reached the beach without mishap to any of the members of her crew.

The Depere, a vessel of 3475 tons, was commanded by Capt. John Newland of Seattle and belonged to the Alaska Steamship Company.

Earlier yesterday a terrific storm was reported in the region where the Depere floundered. At that time fears were expressed for the safety of fishing boats and other craft. Reports from Alaskan coast point described the gale as the most destructive in many years.

Market Workers Are Busy Today In Cleaning Up

No Stock Market Session Today Makes It Possible For Employees To Catch Up

SITUATION NEARLY BACK TO NORMAL

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—There being no session of the New York stock exchange today, brokers and their overworked employees enjoyed another welcome respite. They were at their offices, however, catching up on accumulated tasks.

Throughout Wall street there was a distinct feeling of relief and optimism—in sharp contrast to the situation a week and two weeks ago. The rally in prices yesterday and the day before has done the effect of bringing about a decided change of front. Pessimism has given way to optimism and the general belief is that the situation as regards the stock market will continue to show a steady, if gradual, improvement.

President Hoover's action in calling a "prosperity" conference of the nation's leading business men at Washington next week was also regarded as another important factor tending to create additional confidence in the future.

The leading bankers, who had been watching the trend of the stock market with concern, now feel that the situation is almost normal. The bankers met late yesterday at the offices of J. P. Morgan and Company and compared notes. They were unanimous on one point: that the situation is brighter at present than at any time in the last three weeks. The conviction was general that the storm has blown over.

Much of the recovery in prices was attributed to the policy of several large interests in "pegging" a number of stocks so as to prevent a wide open break. Pursuant to this policy was a bid late Wednesday of $50 a share for 1,000,000 shares of Standard Oil of New Jersey. And then, on Thursday, a bid was made for 200,000 shares of United States Steel Corporation common at $150. It was reported that a number of other leading issues have been "pegged" to prevent any precipitous decline.

Decrees in Divorce Are Handed Down By Judge Chambers

Five Are Granted On Charges Of Desertion And Two On Cruelty Grounds

Decrees in divorce were handed down by Judge Chambers this morning in cases recently heard by him in divorce cases. Divorces granted are as follows:

New Episcopal Prayer Book Provides Changes In Marriage Ceremony

Vestry of Trinity Episcopal church at a recent meeting examined and ordered copies of the new Episcopal prayer book for use in the local church. That selected by the vestry was the cleartype edition which had been approved and recommended by the rector, Rev. Philip C. Pearson.

The prayer books have been ordered and it is hoped to have them here in time for use on the first Sunday in December, when, according to the decree of the late presiding bishop, the new prayer books are to be officially used for the first time.

There are a number of important changes noticeable in the new prayer books. In the new Episcopal marriage service women no longer promise to "obey," but the men have things evened up for them. The husband now is not required to endow his bride with all his worldly goods.

The prayer book was recently revised for the second time in approximately 141 years. The original prayer book and the forms of service remained unaltered, as a whole, from the founding of the Episcopal church in 1787 until 1892. The second revision was authorized and begun in 1913, but was not completed until 1928. The method of revision is extremely conservative.

All changes must be approved by the two houses of the general convention and must then be approved in the same way at the next meeting, three years later.

There are quite a number of other changes in addition to those of the marriage service. The litany now includes a prayer for those who travel by air, and the direct office of the president of the United States is mentioned, instead of all Christian rulers. A larger variety in morning and evening prayer services are permitted and there are new and specific services for national holidays.

Prayers that the Christian dead may have continued growth in love and service have been made obligatory in the communion service. The Book of Psalms is to be read twice each year in the service, but the imprecatory portions are omitted. In the baptismal service the God parents are required to promise to provide a Christian education for the child.

The new prayer book provides an entirely new series of scriptural lessons from the old and the new testaments to be read at morning and evening prayer, as well as a new system of using the psalms.

There is also provided an office of instruction for children and young people following the lines of the latest advancement in the science and art of education. A special service for burial of a child is also provided.

The forms of prayers for family worship will be found to be very radically revised. There are five and one-half pages of new prayers for special occasions in the use of family prayers. Additional forms for family worship may be found in the prayer book, also a shorter alternative form for daily morning and evening family prayer are found in the prayer book for the first time.

Harmony Baptist Church To Institute New Feature On Sunday

For the benefit of the little folks who attend the services at the Harmony Baptist church the pastor will give a child's sermon at the morning service Sunday. These story sermons will be a regular feature of the services.

The young people promise an interesting and varied program at their evening service, it will be in the form of a missionary meeting and will be based upon the "Survey".

On November 3 a new class of young married people was organized in the Sunday school with nine present at the initial meeting; last Sunday this number was doubled and it is hoped to increase it still more this week. The name chosen is "Truth Seekers" and officers elected were: president, Joseph Cowan; vice president, Harold Currie and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. G. Krey.

Prayer meeting will be held on Thursday evening with choir rehearsal following.

May Lose Leg As Result Of Shooting

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 16.—Tony Sheffield 26 of Victoria near here, is in the Connelville State hospital with a serious injury to the right leg as the result of an accidental gunshot wound.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Nobody is properly dressed today without a poppy in his button hole or a couple on the radiator cap of his car. This is one day to say it with flowers, if the flowers are Flinders Poppies. By the time you read this you should have yours, but if you haven't, there is still time.

If the money were going to be used for a clam bake for retired oyster openers, or for the annual ball of the left handed piccolo players it might be that would be a real reason for not wearing a poppy. Instead, this money will be used for the relief of men who served and while the war is over eleven years, there are still many cases of need due to service wounds, and disabilities.

Hope the entire New Castle side of the stadium at the football game today will be poppy conscious. If you haven't got yours, do it now.

Even the preachers are cracking wise about the Scotch. Rev. Clifford Joshua dropped in yesterday to remind me of the lad who stayed all night to watch his wife's vanishing cream.

A second hand car agency had a fast one the other day. Chap drops in to look over used cars. Picks out a fiv with plenty of miles on it, and plenty of years. The price is $50.00. Sez the buyer. "I like this fifty dollar car. Now how much is the down payment on it?"

Learn one new thing every day. Learned last night that New Castle is away out in front in the way of inspection of automobiles, and the chances are that the state highway department will have no arrests to make here. Every car you see on the street has the yellow ticket on it, and it only adds one more bit of evidence to the charge that New Castle gets things done properly.

There is another little thing that should be finished up in the next day or two. It is the Community Chest. There is such a little bit left, less than seven thousand dollars, and it should be cleaned up. If any of the brethren would like to lay a couple of dimes on the line that it won't be put over, this colyum will lay odds of eight to five that it will.

Met a friend yesterday who had been away from the city for some years and is now back here. "It's good to get back," said he. "New Castle has something few other towns have, and that is a warmth of community spirit and believe me I'm glad to get back."

The advance guard of the Greensburg army checked in last night with plenty of noise. The boys are all steamed up over the possibilities of wrapping one around the collar of the New Castle team, and accordingly they are making some of the well known "whoopie."
